

Portuguese 5G calendar update

ANACOM updated the indicative calendar for the 5G auction, following the impact of the nearly three months suspension due to COVID-19.

Following a nearly three months suspension due to the Covid-19 pandemic, ANACOM resumed on 1 June the Portuguese 5G auction. The public consultation phase ended on 3 July with about 500 submissions. The calendar has now been updated as follows:

- By September 2020, ANACOM will approve the definitive auction rules (which are expected to follow the bulk of the draft version).
- The auction will start in October and is to be concluded in December.
- In January or February 2021, the allocation of rights of use of frequencies will be completed.
